

Paprica

UNGLAZED PORCELAIN

Paprica is an Italian made unglazed porcelain featuring a modern interpretation of eccentric graphics & colours. Paying homage to the design elements of Milan in the 1980's, Paprica showcases decorative patterns from soft and floral to angular and contemporary in a hexagon format. These decorative patterned tiles are accompanied by three field tiles which showcase beautiful, saturated colouring that can be used in coordination with the decor tiles or on their own. This unglazed porcelain tile is suitable for all residential and commercial applications and will inject style and personality into any space.
